Vision Statement

We are building on our heritage and approaching the future with a vision relevant to our changing world while creating an atmosphere where Christ can bring healing, hope, and joy to all.

I am so thankful for all the people who give of themselves to make the Sunday Morning worship experience so special. When Olivia Yates recently took a vacation for playing the organ Marge Baker stepped in and filled the slot. With Marge gone from the piano Joannie Smith and Don Beaman filled in and did a super job. Julie Lauer needed to be away from her job as choir director and Joannie Smith and Phil Yates filled in bringing their special talents to the job. The talents people bring and their willingness to share them in church make First Baptist a very special place.

We have had so many people share their musical gifts. There have been soloist, duets, quartets, youth choirs, and children's choir. There have been those who have played instruments to add to the service, a lot of talented folks.

I have also enjoyed all those who have given prayers as part of the service. Each person brings their own unique style to their prayer and so many of you have blessed me with the words you have used to lead us in praying.

Then there are the Children's stories, I have watched the faces of the children and I know how much they enjoy that special time each Sunday morning, and all God's children sitting in the pews are blessed by these moments.

Not all can lead in singing, not all can lead in public prayer, not everyone can present a children's message, but I am thankful for all those who can and do. It reminds me that Sunday morning is not a show where I perform for others but it is worship that we do together. Through your participation I have often been inspired, and by you words God has reminded me of things I should pray for through the words of your prayer.

Do you have a talent for music, vocal or instrumental? We would be so glad for you to offer it as a gift to God on Sunday morning, just let Julie Lauer know what you would like to do. Would you like to offer one of the Sunday morning prayers? Janet Duckworth has been scheduling these so you can see her. Would you like to do the Sunday Morning Children's Story? Denise Farmer keeps the schedule for these. You can contact these people or you can call the church office to sign up and help out.

Grace and Peace, Pastor George

Many thanks to Marge Baker, Don Beaman, Joannie Hollis-Smith, and Phil Yates for filling in for Julie, Marge, and Olivia during the past few weeks of summer. We are blessed to have so many skilled musicians in our fellowship who are willing to share their talents.

TO MY FBC FRIENDS . . . I wish to thank you for your beautiful cards and kind words while I was recovering from illness and surgery. Also I enjoyed a pleasant visit with Pastor George and Joanne. I love each one of you dearly. God bless you for your carrying ways.

SAVING NYASHA UPDATE

The music festival, "Saving Nyasha" was held on Sunday, August 10th in Salem, Indiana. The day was filled with beautiful weather, lots of people, and some wonderful Christian music. "Blue Ohio", the band with some of our own First Baptist members in it (Adam, Becky and Ben) made their debut and led the crowd in praise and worship. All proceeds from the event went to Eden Children's Village in Zimbabwe. A big thank you goes to all who helped support this event. First Baptist members supported the festival through their prayer, finances and their attendance. Be watching the church website for photos from "Saving Nyasha".

SUPPORTING INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

We will soon be taking up an offering for the World Mission Offering or WMO. This is an annual offering taken by American Baptist to support more than 100 missionaries serving in over 25 countries around the world. With the value of the dollar decreasing the cost of supporting these missionaries has increased and your support is vital. The following is a list of full-time missionaries you are supporting through the WMO. Please pray for them as they serve Christ in your name.
